Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, O., June 8 .- When Rodney Viox came to bat for Columbus in the ninth inning to-day twenty-six senatorial hitters a safe hit had been made off Southpaw Kellum's clever pitching. It looked like one of those rare affairs, a no-hit game. But Viox met the ball squarely and drove a sharp grounder through the infield just to the right of the pitcher's box. Captain Fox made a gallant try for it and succeeded in reaching the ball, but could not handle it. Viox had saved the senators from the disgrace of being blanked without a single.

Kellum's work in the box was nothing if not sensational. Not a local base-runner succeeded in reaching the third station, and but two got as far as second. Only two others made the acquaintance of Danny Kihm at the first corner. In five of the nine innings the local sluggers were retired in order. In the fourth Hart drew the only base on balls that Kellum gave, and Meany's sacrifice put him on second, where he watched Viox and Grim go out on easy flies. In the sixth, Hart again walked, having been hit by a pitched ball, but he died at first, for O'Brien captured Meany's line drive. Fox fumbled Turner's easy grounder in the eighth, making the only error with which the visiting fielders are credited. Turner reached second on Nattress's out, but got no farther, for George Fox and Bailey could do no better than pop up easy flies. With two out in the ninth, Viox got the lone senatorial hit, but Grim flied out to Kuhns, and Kellum's great day was over. The Indianapolis southpaw was given clean support by his comrades, the fielding of Babb at third base being exceptionally fast and accurate. The visitors hit Bailey with some energy all through the game and somebody reached first base in every inning. He was effective at critical times, however, fielded his position and scored on the amateurish fielding of well, and with faster support would have made the game a great nothing-to-nothing. For five innings neither side scored, but Indianapolis broke the ice in the sixth and won the game through the assistance of some very ragged fielding. Hogriever hit safely, was sacrificed to second by Kuhns Nattress and Evans, else often he had been caught off second base. O'Brien followed him across the plate when Kuhns hit safely in the eighth. Singles by O'Brien and Kihm and Turner's error yielded the third tally. Danny Kihm led at the bat, with three clean singles out of four times up. He was the recipient of an elaborate basket of flowers in the second by some of his old friends at the State Deaf and Dumb Institution here, where he attended school ten years ago. McMackin will try to keep the senators in first place to-morrow, and Sutthoff will pitch for the visitors. To-morrow's game is the one scheduled for Wednesday, which will be played on Monday instead. Score: Hart, cf...... 2 is the only genuine Vuelta stock ever grown on American soil. Bondy & Lederer are the FIRST and ONLY cigar manufacturers to produce this result. No one ever attempted such enterprise before. It is new in the tobacco-growing world. The saving of importation duty alone makes it possible to sell a cigar of this peculiar Vuelta coffee-like taste for a nickel.

The Tom Keene is pure 'Vuelta in every acceptance of the term, and critical smokers will immediately realize it. The delicate but positive character of taste peculiar to Vuelta is plainly evident to every one in smoking it. It is so noticed in this flavor that we have had occasion to prosecute several dealers for selling the Tom Keene as a 10-cent cigar. These suits were instituted because we do not wish dealers to frustrate the purpose of our advertising, which is to inform the people that a genuine Vuelta filled cigar can be had for 5 cents under the name of Tom Keene.

Statement by The Daniel Stewart Co.

We wish to state to the public that in all our experience of cigar handling we have never seen a brand so exceptionally praised as the Tom Keene. We wish to add that of our knowledge its popularity is well founded and well deserved. It is to our knowledge the best grade of cigar we have ever known to be sold for 5 cents.

(Signed) THE DANIEL STEWART CO.

CAB DRIVERS' UNION SCALE

JOURNED AT 1 THIS MORNING.

Will Ask for Less Rate on the Dollar of prices that is to go into effect as soon as the Liverymen's Association agrees to it.

There seems to be little doubt that the association will agree to the scale, as it is largely based on the liverymen's own proposition and the raising of prices has been a co-operative move on the part of the union and association. The proposed scale is a peculiar arrangement, the rate on the dollar being cut down from the former price paid drivers, but, considering the increase the employers receive, it will give them a material increase. The base of the scale asks for 20 cents on the dollar, which was offered to the union by the association for the trip to Crown Hill. The liverymen formerly got $2 for the trip and paid the driver driver is to receive 80 cents. The present cents on the dollar looks at first glance to be a decrease in wages, but when the increased price of a trip is considered it shows that the drivers will receive an advance of 60 per cent, in wages. The increase in prices gives the liverymen an advance of 100 per cent. The undertaker, however, comes in for 21/2 cents more than formerly paid for collections, giving him an increase of 25 per cent. for his collections,

Wreck of His Home. Henry Wesler, 601 West Merrill street, with his wife, attended a picnic of Iron Molders yesterday afternoon. On their return home the couple got into an argument and Wesler vented his wrath on the furniture in the front room. He first demolished a large dresser, then the bed, tore them and swept the ornaments from the mantel to the middle room, where he kicked them around. Finally he spied, at so much a week, ask for a reduction | aquarium containing two gold fish. Wesler looked with delight on this object as he thought of the damage he could do when he kicked that globe-like arrangement into the other room. He accomplished his purpose, but the fish landed on the carpet, where they flopped and scampered in an endeavor to find a home. By this time Bicycle Policemen Mefford and Trimpe arrived. They waded through the wreck and could see no one, as Wesler had left by a rear door. Mefford spied the wriggling fish on the floor and picked them up. He procured a tin pan in a back room and filled it with water, into which he placed the fish. That was all they could save from the wreck, so complete was Wesler's work. Mrs. Wesler evaded her husband by running away. Finally Wesler returned
